

Summer Writing Workshop Website

Weebly

Miller, Myriah Miller, & Lee, Sung Hee. (2018). Creating Digital Writing Communities that Meet the Needs of Diverse Learners. [Power point slides]. Presented at the CEC Annual Convention and Expo Feb 7 – 10, 2018 in Tampa, FL.

This website was created to provide all the summer camp resources, including video tutorials and materials for students. The website also provides sample lesson plans for teacher and ideas for differentiated instruction <http://ysuwritingworkshope.weebly.com>

Storybird

This website is an interactive writing platform where writers create picture books. They choose from a vast library of illustrations and write their own stories. <https://storybird.com/>

Vocaroo

This website allows students with writing difficulties to record their comments. Once done recording the comment, students can share the created link with other students.

<http://vocaroo.com/>

PowToon

This website allows teacher to create animated videos and presentation to engage their students.

This is an alternative to PowerPoint presentation.

<http://www.powtoon.com>