

Source References List

The materials provided in class and in Moodle may be protected by copyright. They are intended for the personal, educational uses of students in this course and should not be shared externally or on websites such as Course Hero or OneClass. Unauthorized distribution may result in copyright infringement and violation of Cambrian policies.

Course Resources

Insert references here in APA Format

---

Examples (for reference only, delete before students access this document):

How to Cite APA Format \(The Learning Portal\)

Diabetes epidemic in Canada (2017, November). Medicentres.

<https://www.medicentres.com/2017/11/diabetesepidemic-in-canada>

Fleming, S. W. (2017). Where the river flows: Scientific reflections on earth's waterways. Princeton University Press.

Galán, C. A., & Humphreys, K. L. (2017). ADHD and substance use: Current evidence and treatment considerations. Psychiatric Times, 34(8), 19-20.

Hypothyroidism. (2013). In D. Venes et al. (Eds.), Taber's cyclopedic medical dictionary (22nd ed.). F. A. Davis.

O'Brien, G. (2018, June 25). Changing the landscape: More men are embracing the nursing profession. BusinessWest, 35(5), 35-56.

Reidy, M. (2017). French Canadians of Québec origin. In J. N. Giger (Ed.), Transcultural nursing: Assessment and intervention (7th ed., pp. 554-575). Elsevier.

Stanhope, M., Lancaster, J., Jakubec, S. L., & Pike-MacDonald, S. A. (2017). Community health nursing in Canada (3rd Canadian ed.). Elsevier.

The health risks of too much salt. (2017, September). Consumer Reports on Health, 29(9), 4-6.